B¹
~~5.~~ A method of making a medicinal substance, consisting of the steps of providing a material carrier in form of an active medicinal substance in therapeutic dose; providing a potentiated medicinal substance produced by homeopathic method from an initial substance possessing a chemical formula or a composition identical to those of the active medical substance; mixing the potentiated medicinal substance with the active medicinal substance, so that the material carrier is exposed to electromagnetic field of a certain frequency spectrum characteristic of the potentiated homeopathic medicinal substance by biologically transferring information from the potentiated medicinal substance to the material carrier.

~~10.~~ A method as defined in claim 5; and further comprising using a same dosage for the active medicinal substance and the potentiated medicinal substance.

11 ~~7.~~ A medicinal substance, consisting of a material carrier in form of an active medicinal substance and therapeutic dose; and a potentiated medicinal substance produced by homeopathic method from an initial substance possessing a chemical formula or a composition identical to those of said active medicinal substance, so that the active medicinal substance is exposed to electromagnetic field of a certain frequency spectrum characteristic of said potentiated homeopathic medicinal substance and therefore the material carrier is provided with information which is transferred via energetically thereto from said potentiated medicinal substance.

12 ~~8.~~ A medicinal substance as defined in claim 7, wherein said active medicinal substance is directly mixed with said potentiated homeopathic medicinal substance.
